

Specification of the state from which an agent can commit a suicide, and under which condition